Dare to Soar Leadership Retreats

Come to a two-weekend experience where you will learn about authenticity, integrity, brokenness, courage, vision, servanthood and blessing in leadership. Identify the ways you limit your leadership – and then break through those barriers so that you contribute to the world what your heart longs to give. Learn to lead from your true essence and power instead of an image or persona. Discover how to increase your influence and how to lead as a Servant-King who uses his gifts to bless those he serves. This unique, two-retreat package has several months between weekends to enable you to take practical steps that become part of your second weekend. Go beyond just gathering more information about leadership; learn how to make authentic, courageous leadership a part of who you are so you create the impact in your family, church, neighborhood and world that both you and God want.
